

BCATML

Spring 2024

HAPPY SPRING

Hello everyone! Greetings from your BCATML President!

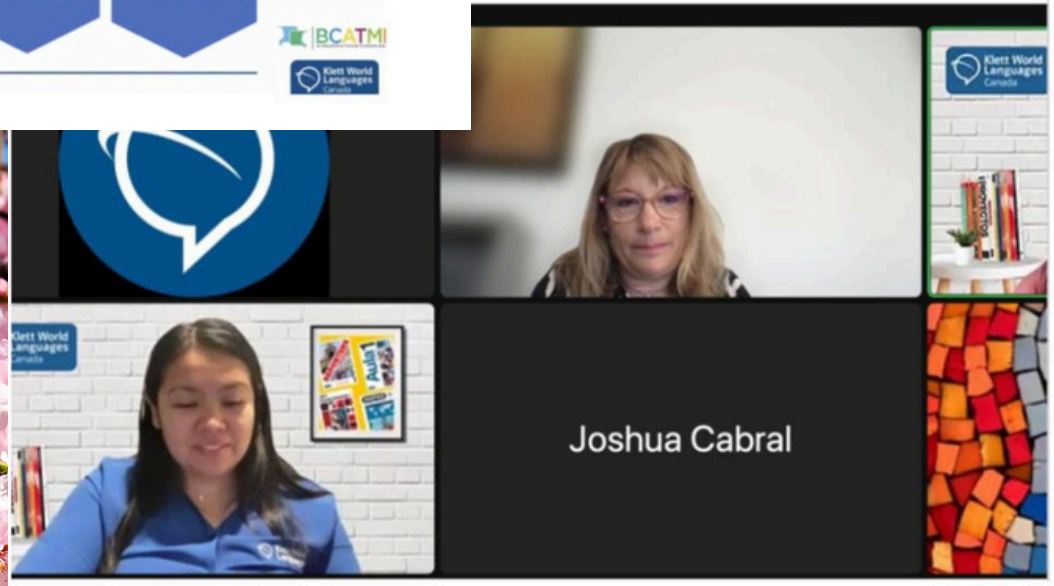

I hope that everyone is doing well. We have lots to share with you in this edition of our newsletter. Our BCATML Conference Committee is hard at work planning our fall conference....stay tuned for more information!

COLLABORATING WITH KLETT

This spring we had the huge pleasure to partner with Klett World Languages and host our first ever one-day virtual conference! It was an amazing event and we hope to see it become an annual event.

@reallygreatsite

Thank you to Klett World Languages for their hard work and thank you to all of you who participated! It was a fantastic day of professional development. We had the pleasure to learn from 3 world renowned speakers and innovators who were extremely informative, innovative, and inspiring as leaders in the field.

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Joshua Cabral, “The Essential Role of Student Agency in Language Learning”

Florencia Henshaw, “Integrating Virtual Exchanges in the Language Curriculum”

Diego Ojeda, “Empowering World Language Teachers: Enhancing Reading Comprehension in the Classroom”

